

Welcome
RS Retreat

a little note from your hosts

Hello and Welcome! We hope you have a lovely and cozy stay. We want this to feel like home while you are here. So please sit back, relax and enjoy the views!

In this book you will find information about check in and out procedures, a few house rules, how to work appliances around the house, a few of our family favorite recommendations and of course, where to find adventure in Park City!

Please take a moment to read through and familiarize yourself with the home. Should you have any other questions during your stay please contact us.

places to see

Downtown Park City

Historic downtown Park City is nestled at the base of the Wasatch Mountain range, lined with quaint buildings built during the 19th century silver mining boom. Enjoy one of a kind shops, incredible restaurants and fun night life! Did you know Park City is the home to the Sundance Film Festival each January?

Local State Parks and Spectacular views:

Can't beat killer views in every direction... Utah is known for housing the "Mighty 5" National Parks! Zion, Bryce Canyon, Capitol Reef, Arches and the Canyonlands. There is some serious ground to cover as far as State Parks go... 43 state parks to be precise! Here are a few within 1-hour driving distance to the RS Retreat. Enjoy hiking, swimming and blue skies for miles!

- Jordanelle State Park
- Uinta-Wasatch-Cache Mountain State Park
- Echo State Park
- Deer Creek State Park

Keep in touch!

We truly hope you enjoyed your stay and set some time aside to enjoy the mountain views!

We would be honored to hear all about your adventures while visiting... please fill out our guestbook by the entry way!

Until next time... Safe Travels!
